

Distance Fares from 3 July 2010

You can work out your exact bus and train fares with the new Fare Calculator from 16 June 2010. To plan your route, you can also use the Public Transport Journey Planner. Just log on to www.publictransport.sg! Remember to always tap in on entry and tap out on exit!

From 3 July 2010, all commuters will be charged a fare according to the distance travelled, on the bus, LRT and MRT. With Distance Fares, fares are computed on a journey basis, without any penalties for transfers made during the journey. Log on to the Journey Planner at www.publictransport.sg to plan your journey and calculate your fares.

Find out your fare with the Fare Calculator @ www.publictransport.sg from 16 June 2010

With Distance Fares, you can make up to 5 transfers within one journey. To find out how much your journey will cost, log on to www.publictransport.sg and go to 'Fare Calculator'. Select 'Fare Type', choose the 'Mode of Transport' and follow the instructions.

For more information on how Distance Fares work:

